

STUDENTS SATISFACTION SURVEY RESULTS

*FOOD AND TECHNOLOGY SCIENCE
AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION AND COMMUNICATION*

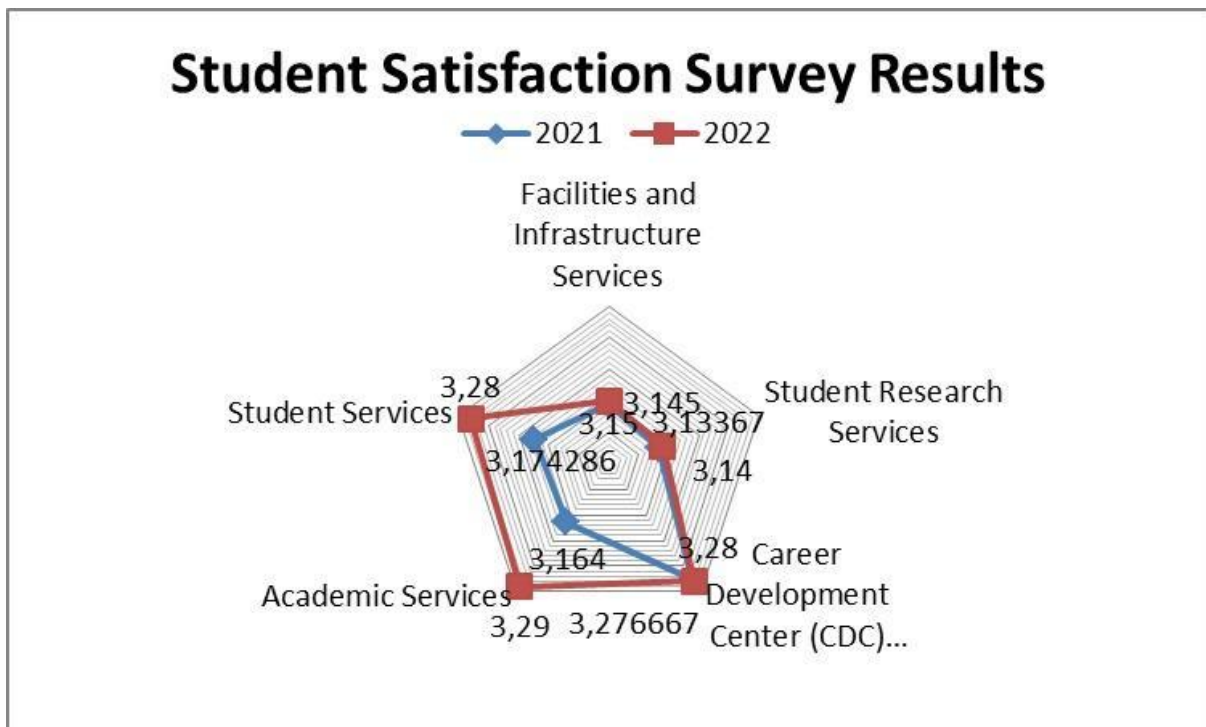

2021

FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE
SEBELAS MARET UNIVERSITY

STUDENTS SATISFACTION SURVEY RESULTS 2021
FOOD AND TECHNOLOGY SCIENCE
AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION AND COMMUNICATION
FACULTY OF AGRICULTURE
SEBELAS MARET UNIVERSITY

A student satisfaction survey has been conducted from several services on campus. The survey involved 30 students consisting of several batches and both study programs. From the survey it was found that the average student satisfaction score has a value of more than 3, namely (satisfied) with facilities and infrastructure services, student research services, career development center (CDC) services, academic services, and student services.

The following are the results of the 2021-2022 Student Satisfaction Survey Results which consist of 5 sections: facilities and infrastructure services, student research services, career development center (CDC) services, academic services, and student services. Facilities and Infrastructure services include zoom use services, internet access, lecture/training learning infrastructure services, independent learning infrastructure services (SAC). Student research services include laboratory tests, research services, research permits. Career development center (CDC) services include attitude and speed of service.

Academic services include registration, KRS, graduation services. Student services include student services, SPJ activity services.

The results of the survey on student in 2021 about facilities and infrastructure services is 3,145, which means that students are satisfied with facilities and infrastructure services. Student satisfaction with student research services is equal to 3,13367 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with student research services. Student satisfaction with career development center (CDC) services is 3,276667 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with career development center (CDC) services. Student satisfaction with academic services is 3,164 which means that students are satisfied with academic services. Student satisfaction with student services is 3,174286 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with student services.

The results of the survey on students in 2022 about facilities and infrastructure services is 3,15, which means that students are satisfied with facilities and infrastructure services. Student satisfaction with student research services is equal to 3,14 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with student research services. Student satisfaction with career development center (CDC) services is 3,28 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with career development center (CDC) services. Student satisfaction with academic services is 3,29 which means that students are satisfied with academic services. Student satisfaction with student services is 3,28 which can be interpreted that students are satisfied with student services.